ORAL JUDGMENT

#. The matter was called out for hearing in the first round, then in the second round and lastly in the third round, but none put appearance on behalf of the petitioner. Heard learned counsel for respondent and perused the Special Civil Application.

#. The petitioner, an employee of the respondent-Bank,

filed this Special Civil Application and challenge has been made to the order dated 3rd September 1986 of respondent No.2 under which he was ordered to be dismissed from services.

#. This order has been passed on the basis of the report of inquiry officer wherein the misconduct alleged against the petitioner was found to be proved. From the averments made in Special Civil Application, it is clear that the petitioner has admitted the charges. The respondent No.2 has given a show cause notice to the petitioner before passing the order impugned in this Specail Civil Application but he has not filed any reply to the show cause notice. Not only this, he was also called for personal hearing but he has not availed of that opportunity. The charges against the petitioner are also of serious nature.

#. Taking into consideration the totality of the facts of the case, I do not find any illegality in the order dated 3rd September 1986, passed by respondent No.2 which calls for interference of this Court in its writ jurisdiction. In the result, the Specail Civil Application fails and the same is dismissed. Notice discharged. No order as to costs.
